THINK ABOUT THIS

ARE YOU FINISHING WELL?

I thought I raised my children well. They seemed like good kids. But then, a few months ago, my oldest son did the unthinkable. The most thoughtless, unimaginable thing he's ever done.

He moved out.

I probably should have been expecting it. After all, he's 21. But I'd done a pretty good job of ensuring he'd live with us forever. And really, he was on the fast track to living at home for many, many years to come.
